FOLD HERE

This jury process is only the first step for new vendors wishing to join the market. Approval of jury items does not mean you will be accepted into the market as a new vendor. Juried items and new vendors are subject to review and approval by the ACFM Board of Directors who make decisions based on open craft vendor spots and product diversity. New vendors will be notified of a decision within several weeks following this jury process.

I agree to abide by the decision of the Art and Crafts Jury and offer for sale at the Ashe County Farmers Market only those items marked as approved on this Crafts Certification form. I understand that my privileges as a Vendor at the ACFM will be revoked at any time should I knowingly sell any unapproved craft products.
