Additional Vendor Information and Acknowledgements

Please Initial

I have received a copy of the ACFM Policies and Procedures and understand that this document is also available on the ACFM website at www.ashefarmersmarket.com for my review. I am responsible for reading and following these rules. I also understand they are subject to change during the season and that I will be notified of any changes in writing.

I understand that as a vendor that I should notify the Market Manager by 5 pm the previous Thursday of my absence to assist with space assignments.

All products that I sell at the market will be raised, grown or made by me within the eligible counties. I understand that no resale of any products is allowed at the Market, which means I will not purchase product from another store or entity and resell that product as my own.

Each vendor participating in the Market shall be responsible for any loss, personal injury and/or damage that may occur as the result of the vendor's actions and agrees to hold harmless the ACFM from any losses, damages, claims, suits or actions, judgments and attorney fees.

I am aware that vendors are encouraged to maintain their own liability insurance.

In the event me, or anyone working in my booth falls seriously ill during market hours or requires emergency medical attention the Market Manager or a Director at their discretion may seek emergency medical attention on my behalf.

I understand that membership fees for Kid's at ACFM are free.

I understand that as a vendor, I am committing to selling at the Market on those days I attend through the Market's advertised open hours.

I understand that my signature affirms that I will be available to volunteer for events, meetings, and other circumstances that may require vendor participation during the Market Season.
